

Graduate Fellowships/Scholarships and Loan/Salary Fund Information start on page 7.

- Access Bank—Endowed Scholarship. Varying amount awarded annually to a junior or senior with a declared major in the business college; renewable for up to 8 semesters; student must have and maintain a 3.0 or better cumulative grade point average; must be a Doña Ana County resident for at least 1 year prior to receiving the scholarship. (Donated by Matrix Capital Bank FSB)
- Accounting and Information Systems Alumni and Faculty—Scholarship. Scholarships in varying amounts for Accounting and IS majors. Selection based on academic performance. (Sponsored by IS alumni, faculty, and friends)
- Ahlers, Herman and Donna—Scholarship. Junior/Senior, 3.5 GPA, NM Resident, U.S. Citizen, renewable, attended a New Mexico high school, must be employed.
- Allen, Johnna Christine—Memorial Scholarship. Varying amount to one female student. Selection based on scholarship and activity in university and community affairs. Preference given to an Accounting major. Recipient must submit an explanation of how this scholarship will enhance their education with their thank you letter. (Donated by friends of the Allen family)
- Allred, Lynn—Memorial Scholarship. Female, U.S. citizen, 2.5 GPA, financial need, returning student, preference given to business major. Selected by the Scholarship Coordinator in the Financial Aid Office. (Established by Everett Crawford, Citizens Bank, and its employees)
- American Society of Women Accountants—Scholarship. One or more scholarships awarded to juniors or seniors majoring in Accounting. Applicants must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher. Preference given to females. (Donated by Las Cruces Chapter of American Society of Women Accountants)
- American Society of Women Accountants and the Dona Ana Chapter of CPAs—Scholarships. One or more scholarships awarded to a junior or senior accounting major, selection by the Accounting/Information Systems Scholarship Committee. (Joint scholarships by the ASWA and DACCPA established 8/2002)
- Andersen, Arthur & Co. L.L.P.—Scholarship/Fellowship. Varying amounts annually to graduate or undergraduate Accounting majors. Selections by the accounting faculty based on academic performance. (Donated by Arthur Andersen & Co. and its employees)
- Armour, Tommy—Scholarships. Ten awards of varying amounts for students enrolled in the PGA Golf Management™ program. Selection based on academic achievement and involvement in departmental and/or student activities. Financial need and golfing ability are also considered. Selected by PGA GM director. (Donated by Tommy Armour Company)
- Artesia Data Systems, Inc.—Scholarships. Two tuition scholarships awarded annually for Accounting and Information Systems majors. Selection by Accounting and IS faculty based on academic performance and financial need. (Established by NMSU alumni and employees of Artesia Data Systems, Inc.)
- Association of Golf Merchandisers (AGM) PGM—Scholarship. Current PGM student in good standing, active in PGM student organization, 2.5 or higher GPA. Total amount of scholarship to be divided in half each semester.
- BA and Econ Alumni—Scholarship. Various amounts awarded to full-time students enrolled in the College of Business. (Donated by alumni, friends and faculty)
- BA and Econ Transfer Student Community College—Scholarship. Awarded to a student transferring from a New Mexico 2-year institution. Student must be a New Mexico resident and a U.S. citizen, and must have a minimum 3.0 transfer cumulative grade point average. (Donated by Danny and Peggy Arnold)
- Barham Family—Centennial Scholarship. Varying amount for a student in the College of Business who is a U.S. Citizen and who has a 3.0 or higher cumulative grade point average. The student should be enrolled in ROTC. (Established by David, Hugh, and Julia Barham)

- Barham, David—Memorial Centennial Scholarship. Sophomore/Junior/Senior, U.S. Citizen, preference given to student from Hot Dog on a Stick personnel otherwise student must be a New Mexico resident.
- Barham, Hugh F., Julia, and Forrest J.—Centennial Scholarship. Varying amount to a freshman with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better. Recipient must be a U.S. resident. (Established by Hugh F. Barham).
- Bartnik, Joseph J.—Memorial Scholarship. Two scholarships will be awarded to freshmen students for their sophomore year. Applicants must not be eligible for other financial aid from the institution and must have an earned grade point average of 3.0 or better. (Donated by Elizabeth R. Bartnik)
- Brisbin, Bryce and Mary—Scholarship. Student majoring in business, 3.0 GPA.
- Bullock, James—Endowed Scholarship Fund. An annual award to one or more students majoring in accounting. Eligible candidates must have demonstrated financial need and a grade point average of 3.0 or better. (Established by Anne and Rick Tardiff)
- Byrd, Robert L.—Scholarship. Varying amount awarded annually to a sophomore or junior who is enrolled in the College of Business in a field of study that is leading to a career in insurance and/or risk management. The recipient must have at least a 2.75 grade point average; financial need will also be a consideration. (Established by the New Mexico Claims Association)
- Campbell, Pat F. and Louise Gibbs—Memorial Scholarship. Three scholarships awarded to students enrolled in the College of Business. Scholarship recipients are requested to assist others, as they have been assisted, when their financial circumstances permit. (Donated by Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson)
- Cervin, Michael R.—Endowed Memorial Leadership Award. Based on leadership ability and potential. Eligible candidates must use the award to augment an internship during their junior/senior year. Candidate must submit a written summary of how they plan to use the stipend to further their career goals. (Donated by Mr. and Mrs. David Cervin)
- Citizens Bank/Robert L. Triviz—Memorial Scholarship. Varying amount awarded to an undergraduate business student who is a U.S. citizen. Student must have a cumulative grade point average between 2.5 and 3.2, be a sophomore, junior or senior, and participate in university or community activities and/or married and holding a part-time job. (Established by Everett Crawford, Citizens Bank, and its employees).
- Clemons, Frankie and Russell—Endowed Scholarship. Varying amount to a junior majoring in the College of Business with a 2.5 or better GPA who works a minimum of 20 hours per week. (Established by Frankie & Russell Clemons Update: 8/00)
- Costley, Dan L.—Endowed Memorial Scholarship. Awarded to a management major with a 3.2 or better GPA. Student may receive the award more than one year but must re-apply each year. (Established by Lavita A. Costley, 8/01)
- Community First Bank—Scholarship. Varying amount awarded to a finance major who attended a New Mexico high school and has a 3.0 GPA. (Donated by the Western Bank of Las Cruces)
- Compton, Nina H.—Student Current-Use Scholarship. Awarded to a business student enrolled in the Honors College. Must have taken at least one Honors course and earned a final “A” course grade and have a minimum 3.25 GPA.
- ConocoPhillips—Scholarships. Awarded to accounting and finance majors.
- Devlin, Stuart and Peggy—Scholarship. Varying amounts for a general business major who is interested in becoming an entrepreneur.
- Doña Ana Chapter of CPAs—Scholarships. Awarded to junior or senior accounting majors with a cumulative grade point average of 2.8 or better. Financial need is a preference but not a requirement. (Donor Designated)

- DuPont Minority—Education Grant. Varying amounts for business majors who are both U.S. nationals and minorities. (Donated by DuPont Company)
- Dusit Foundation PGM. Full-time PGA GM™ student in good standing with a 2.0 or better cumulative GPA, preference shall be given to a citizen of Thailand.
- Economics—Scholarship. An annual award to an economics undergraduate student. Selection made by the Departmental Scholarship Committee based on academic performance. (Sponsored by the Department of Economics and International Business alumni, faculty, and friends)
- El Paso Corporate Foundation—Scholarship-Accounting. Varying amount awarded to an accounting major. Scholarship is based on scholastic ability, academic potential, financial need, and membership in a protected group. The recipient must be a U.S. citizen. (Donated by El Paso Energy Foundation.)
- Ernst & Young—Bridge Scholarship. Award seven $1000 scholarships to freshmen and sophomore enrolled in the College of Business, preference given to American Indian students, academic excellence in high school. Requires students submit E&Y application, resumé and transcript.
- Ernst & Young—Business Leaders Scholarship. Award two $2000 scholarships to junior and two $2000 scholarships to senior accounting or finance majors. In both instances, preference will be given to accounting majors and to persons of color. Criteria: 3.3 + GPA, leadership skills in student business clubs and organizations and/or community. Student must submit E&Y application release, resumé and transcripts.
- Fagan Society—Endowed. Marketing major, junior or senior, full-time undergraduate student, demonstrate financial need, 2.5 + GPA (Donated by Kevin Boberg)
- Farmer's Insurance Group of Companies—Scholarship. Varying amounts awarded to Finance major(s) whom have an insurance interest and a 2.5 grade point average or better. Must be a sophomore, junior, or senior. (Donated by Farmer's Insurance Group)
- Flury, Lance—PGM Scholarship. Annual scholarship for an undergraduate in the PGA GM™ program, 3.0 or better GPA.
- Foley, Jeremy—Book Award. The award of $250 shall be used to make one award of $125 each semester to students majoring in business. The candidates must demonstrate financial need and have a GPA of 3.0 or better.
- Fort Bliss Federal Credit Union—Scholarships. Three $1,000 scholarships (two undergraduate and one graduate) in the College of Business in consultation with a representative from the Fort Bliss Federal Credit Union. Must be a resident of New Mexico or Texas, have a 3.5 or better GPA. Requires a 300- to 500-word essay stating why student deserves scholarship and how community benefits from their education.
- General Motors—Scholarships. Five scholarships to students with technical backgrounds, 3.0+ GPA with exceptions to be reviewed by GM, sophomore + classification, Hispanic students preferred, passing score on the GM Web Based Inventory Assessment, interest in internships with GM.
- General Motors—Accounting and Marketing Scholarships. Varying amounts awarded to accounting and marketing majors; awards based on academic promise and performance; preference to women and minorities. (Donated by General Motors)
- Goho, Joan Matter—Memorial. Varying amount annually to a student who is majoring in economics and commencing the senior year. Selection based on academic performance. (Donated by Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Goho and friends)
- Golf Manufacturers and Distributors Association—PGM Scholarship. Awarded to a PGA GM™ major. Student must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0. (Donated by Golf Manufacturers and Distributors Association)

- Granucci, Joe & Joan—Scholarship. Awarded to an incoming first-term freshman with a 21 or better ACT score or first-time transfer student with a 3.0+ GPA, NM resident, PBA MGT or declared management major. (Donated by Joe & Joan Granucci with matching funds from Lockheed-Martin)
- Guthrie, G. L.—Scholarship. Varying amount for an undergraduate business major. Student must be a U.S. citizen and have a minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average. (Donated by Mrs. Gus Guthrie)
- Gutierrez, Enrique “Henry,” Jr.—Endowed PGM Scholarship. Annual $500 award to PGA GM™ student(s) in good standing, 2.5 or better GPA, and active in the PGM student association.
- Haight, Lionel D.—Scholarship. For accounting majors who have demonstrated scholastic excellence in previous accounting courses and in other university work. (Sponsored by Lionel D. Haight Fund for Accounting)
- Hanssen, James R.—Endowment. For a junior/senior student majoring in finance and management. Selection based on academic excellence (3.5 GPA). Scholarship award varies. Participation in extracurricular activities and/or employed in addition to going to school. (Established by Stan and Jeanne Hanssen)
- Head Golf—P.G.M. Scholarship. Sophomore/junior student majoring in PGA GM™ with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 or above. Preference given to a member of the PGM Student Association. (Donated by Head Golf U.S.A.)
- Hilton—PGM “Honors” Scholarship. Must be current PGA GM™ student in good standing, 3.5 or higher GPA, passed the Players Ability Test, completed the PRO and Level I seminars of the GPTP. (Donated by Las Cruces Hilton)
- Hubbard Foundation/P.G.M.—“Top Students” Scholarships. Eligible students must have played in both of the Hubbard/PGM scholarship tournaments. Selection will be based on the lowest combined scores of the two tournaments. The following criteria must also be met: PGA GM™ student in good standing with the PGA GM™ program, cumulative G.P.A. of a 3.0 or higher, and successful completion of the PAT, playing ability test.
- Insurance—Scholarship. Scholarships in varying amounts for students interested in pursuing a career in the insurance industry. Preference for students who have declared intent to complete the insurance minor. Selection by Finance Department Scholarship Committee based upon academic performance and involvement in campus organizations and activities. (Sponsored by the Independent Insurance Agents of New Mexico, New Mexico Mutual Group and other insurance industry donors.)
- Jaedicke, C. Dale, Jr.—Memorial Scholarship Fund. For a senior in any major except economics. Selection is to be based primarily on academic achievement and participation in university, college and community activities. Recipients must be U.S. citizens. (Established by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jaedicke)
- JDW Insurance—Scholarship. Recipient must be enrolled in the College of Business (including incoming freshmen), show a demonstrated interest in an insurance-related career, have a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA. Selection by Department committee in consultation with JDW Insurance.
- Jones, Shari—Scholarship. Awarded to New Mexico high school graduate with a GPA of 3.0, full-time junior or senior majoring in accounting.
- Kinney Insurance—Scholarship. Awarded to business majors with an insurance interest. (Donated by Bart H. Kinney III)
- Kirkpatrick, Robert E—Memorial Scholarship. Awarded to a nontraditional student (defined as a student with a minimum of 4 years between the completion of high school and the start of college) at any level of undergraduate study. Minimum GPA of 3.0, preference given to accounting majors.
- Knackstedt, Ed and Nancy—Endowed Accounting Scholarship. Annual award to a junior or senior accounting major, 3.5 GPA, financial need must be a consideration in determination, selected in consultation with Office of Financial Aid. (Established by Chris and Lucinda Knackstedt, July 2001)

- Koesters, Michael—Memorial PGM Scholarship. Varying amount to a current PGA GM™ student in good standing with a 3.0 or higher GPA. Student must be active in the PGM student organization, passed the Players Ability test and completed the PRO and Level I seminars of the GPTP.
- KPMG Peat Marwick—Scholarship/Fellowship. Varying amounts to graduate or undergraduate accounting majors. Selection based on academic performance. (Donated by KPMG Peat Marwick and its employees)
- Las Cruces Abstract and Title Company—Scholarship. To be awarded to students who have demonstrated scholastic excellence in all previous university work and who have participated in activities of the college, university, and community. Recipients must be U.S. citizens and resident of New Mexico. (Donated by Mr. Guy Floyd of Las Cruces Abstract and Title Company)
- Loveland, John—Excellence Scholarship. Eligible candidates must be a management major or MBA student; must have a grade point average of 3.0 or better and demonstrate financial need.
- Lyster, Lloyd W. and Sharon L.—Endowed Memorial Scholarship Fund. Varying amounts awarded to undergraduate students who show academic promise.
- Maes, Frank Armando—Endowed Scholarship. Incoming freshmen of Hispanic heritage, financial need, submit essay displaying leadership abilities in community activities that contribute to his/her community prior to matriculation at NMSU, receive the award for not more than 2 years, and a 2.5+ GPA each semester after matriculation.
- Maloof, Mike J.—Scholarship. Varying amount to a business student who was a resident of northern New Mexico. Selection based on university and community activities.
- McCarthy, Charles William—Memorial Scholarship. Awarded to a New Mexico resident who is majoring in information systems with a grade point average of 3.0 or better.
- McGehee, Lester Thomas—Memorial Scholarship. Awarded to a sophomore business major with a 3.0 or better GPA.
- Meyners & Company, LLC—Scholarship. Awarded to accounting majors with a GPA of 3.0, must have financial need, must show a demonstrated interest in public accounting.
- NationsBank BA & Econ—Scholarship. Selection based on academic excellence, with further consideration given to financial need. Preference should be given to a New Mexico resident transferring from a New Mexico Community College or Junior College with at least a 2.5 G.P.A. (Donated by NationsBank of Las Cruces)
- NM Chapter of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters (NM Chapter of CPCU). For student(s) majoring in risk management, insurance, finance or a field of study in direct support of the risk management and/or the insurance industry, such as but not limited to, actuarial science, loss prevention, life safety & claims administration
- New Mexico Society of Public Accountants—Scholarship (in memory of A. J. Groebner, R.P.A.). Varying amount to a junior or senior majoring in accounting. Recipient must be a U.S. citizen who attended high school in New Mexico. Financial need is also a consideration. (Private donations by the Scholarship Fund Committee, New Mexico Society of Public Accountants)
- Nordyke, James—Scholarship. The recipient should be a U.S. citizen majoring in economics and have junior or senior standing. Academic excellence is required.
- PGA Professional Golf Management—Diversity Scholarship. Up to five awards for PGA GM™ majors. (Donated by PGA of America)
- PGM—Activity Scholarship. PGA GM™ student with a 3.0 or higher GPA, passed the Players Ability Test, completed the PRO and Level I seminars of the GPTP and active in the PGM student organization. (Donated by PGM Families)

- PGM—Alumni Scholarship. PGA GM™ student with a 3.0 or higher GPA, passed the Players Ability Test, completed the PRO and Level I Seminars of the Golf Professional Training Program (GTP). (Donated by PGM Alumni)
- PGM—General Scholarships. PGA GM™.
- Phillips Petroleum Company—Accounting/BCS Scholarship. Varying amounts for students majoring in accounting or information systems. Student must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.75 with no semester below a 2.5. (Donated by Phillips Petroleum Company)
- Phillips Petroleum Company—Designated Academic Opportunity Scholarships (DAOS). Major in accounting or information systems; 2.75 GPA with no semester below 2.5 designated for females, Blacks, Hispanics and American Indians. (Donated by Phillips Petroleum Company)
- Pulakos & Alongi, LTD. (Donated by Pulakos & Alongi, LTD, CPAs)
- Redington, Tom H. and Edith—Memorial Scholarship. Scholarship award varies. Selection based on scholarship and activity in university or community affairs. (Established by Mrs. Tom H. Redington-Estate handled by CO bank)
- Roberts, Bob—BCS Scholarship. Varying amounts to information systems majors. Selection based on academic performance. (Donated by William Roberts and Roed Roberts)
- Rogoff, Erickson, Diamond and Walker—Scholarship. The single annual $500 award shall be used to support Native American students in the College of Business majoring in accounting.
- Rolak-McMillan—Endowed Scholarship. Annual award to a student(s) majoring in business, freshman classification when applying for scholarship, must maintain a minimum 3.0 GPA, New Mexico resident, renewable scholarship. (Donated by Loren A. Rolak and Lois McMillan)
- Romero, Dinty & Ophelia—Endowed Scholarship. Award for a student for education expenses equal to the amount of in-state tuition for both the fall and spring semesters. Criteria: Major in accounting or finance or minor in insurance, 3.5+ GPA, New Mexico native preferred, financial need is not required but may be a factor for the selection. Student must submit resumé. Scholarship renewable as long as the criteria are met.
- Runyan, Paul—PGM. GPA of at least 3.0, submit a short paper on why you want to become a PGA professional, must have completed Level I of the PGA educational program, must have passed the PGA's Playing Ability Test (PAT) and must be a junior.
- Santa Fe Mining Company—Scholarship. The scholarship shall be used to make two $500 awards to students in the Delta Sigma Pi Fraternity. One $500 award shall be made to a member with the highest GPA who has finished their junior year requirements and has 70% attendance at fraternity functions. One $500 award shall be made to a member who has completed junior year requirements and has demonstrated the most outstanding leadership contribution to the fraternity.
- Savage, Allan H.—Accounting Scholarship. For undergraduates and graduate accounting majors selected by the accounting faculty based on academic achievement and other evidence of potential for success as a professional accountant. (Sponsored by the Allan H. Savage Scholarship Endowment)
- Scott, George B.—Endowed Accounting Scholarship. An annual award in the amount of tuition only to an undergraduate accounting major, 3.0+ GPA, junior/senior standing, preference give to a New Mexico high school graduate, show strong ethics, participant in extracurricular activities, and merit. Additional awards may be given in the amount of tuition only but not for a lesser amount. Does not include fees, books, and living expenses or augment an athletic scholarship.
- Shipley, Gary A.—Memorial Scholarship. Awarded to a freshman from New Mexico with an ACT score of at least 22, majoring in marketing. Renewable annually for 4 years while recipient maintains a GPA of at least 2.8 and continues to major in marketing.

- Southern New Mexico Society for Human Resources Management—Scholarships. Award 4 scholarships of equal amounts to juniors, seniors, or graduate students who are active members of NMSU's Student Society for Human Resources Management. Students must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 and demonstrated leadership skills. Preference given to Human Resources Management majors. (Donated by the Southern New Mexico Society Personnel Association)
- Stevens, Evelyn R.—Memorial Scholarships in Business. Varying amounts for juniors or seniors with a 3.0 GPA or higher. Student must have financial need and be working at least part-time. (Established by Eva Robeson Matson)
- TXU—Scholarships. Two scholarships (each dept) to undergraduate accounting and information systems majors. Criteria: 3.2 GPA, 30 credits completed at NMSU and 9 credits completed toward major (Jr or Sr) (Donated by TXU Business Services/Information Technology)
- Webster, W.—PGM Golf Pass Scholarship. Varying amount to PGA GM™ majors.
- Wemlinger, Eugene and Mable—Endowed Finance Scholarship. Annual award to a junior finance major interested in a career related to the stock market. (Frankie Clemons, Executor, 9/00)
- Westwide Distributors/NMSU Bookstore—Scholarship. Sophomore or junior business major, 3.0+ GPA, preference given to a marketing/retail merchandising major, maximum of $500 per semester. (Westwide Distributors).
- Whitfield, William Edwin, Jr.—Memorial Endowment. For a student who has an interest in the field of transportation. Student must be a U.S. citizen and entering the junior year with at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA. Preference given to females. (Established by Mrs. Joyce Whitfield Jaynes and daughters)
- Wimberly, Guy—Professional Golf Management Scholarship Endowment. Varying amount for a junior or senior PGA GM™ major with a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or better. (Established by Mr. Paul Stone)
- Woman in Transition—Scholarship. For a female student majoring in finance with a concentration in real estate with a 3.0 cumulative GPA or higher. (Donated by Mountain States Escrow)
- Wunsch, William C. and Wilhelm A.—Scholarship. Eligible candidates must demonstrate financial need and have high school academic achievements indicative of the ability to earn a degree from the College of Business. Preference shall be given to candidates who reside on or near a reservation who intend to apply their education to the management of reservations including the business and asset management of reservations. Preference will also be given to candidates on the roll of the Yurok or Karuk Tribe of California or on the roll of a New Mexico reservation or pueblo. Eligible candidates must be undergraduates, preferably freshmen. Once selected, recipients may continue to receive the award for more than 1 year if the student has maintained a grade point average of 2.5 during their first year and 3.0 thereafter, including Graduate School.
- Zickefoose, Paul W.—Scholarship. Scholarship awarded to a junior or senior economics major with a 3.0 GPA. (Established by Mr. Paul Stone)

GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS/SCHOLARSHIPS

- Cadman, Wilson K.—Endowed Scholarship. Annual award to at least one student admitted to the Masters Program in Economics with a regulatory option, minimum 3.0 GPA. (Donor El Paso Electric)
- Campbell, Randy G.—Scholarship Fund. An annual award of $2500 in two installments at the start of each semester to a student enrolled in the MBA graduate program. Recipient must have a 3.0 GPA and may receive the award for more than 1 year.
- Chaplin, Michael—Book Scholarship. Annual award to an economics graduate student.
- El Paso Energy—Scholarship-MBA Program. Available to an MBA student based on academic excellence with further consideration given to financial need. (Donated by El Paso Energy Foundation.)

- El Paso Energy—Fellowship. Available to an MBA student, U.S. Citizen, selection based on academic excellence with further consideration given to financial need. (Donated by El Paso Energy Foundation)
- Ernst & Young Foundation—American Indian Scholarship Award. Two scholarships used to award $5,000 to two American Indian students pursuing master's degrees in either Business Administration or Accountancy. Candidates must provide verification of federally recognized tribal affiliation. Preference will be given to candidates with: a bachelors degree in Accounting, Information Systems, Computer Science, or Industrial Engineering; a strong technical/analytical background and future business interests in tax or accounting practices, high academic achievement, graduating with a 3.0 grade point average or better and/or be within the top 10%-15% of their graduating class; demonstrated leadership potential in the community and/or on campus. In the event there are no eligible graduate students, consideration will be given to seniors interested in pursuing Masters of Business Administration or Accountancy at NMSU who have satisfied this criteria.
- Gordon, Brad—Scholarship. Awarded to graduate students interested in marketing.
- Haight, Lionel D.—Graduate Fellowship in Accounting. For Master of Accountancy students. Fellowships in varying amounts are awarded for support of summer research under the direction of a faculty member. Selection based on academic qualifications and financial need.
- McCarter Family—Endowed Fund. Yearly award to a faculty member or graduate student in support of research.
- Sepich, Kathryn Jaye—Memorial Endowed Scholarship. Annual award to a female graduate student(s) with a declared major in the MBA program, 3.0 or higher GPA. Recipient may receive award for more than 1 year if criteria continues to be met.
- Shell Fellows. Varying amounts for business students whom are U.S. citizens or have a permanent resident visa. Selection is based on leadership and participation in college and community activities. (Donated by Shell Oil Company Foundation)
- Simpson, Billie Ruth—Graduate Fellowship in Business. For MBA students. Fellowship normally is awarded to support summer research under the direction of a faculty member. (Established by Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Simpson)
- Simpson, W. K.—Graduate Fellowship in Accounting. For Master of Accountancy students. Fellowships usually are awarded to support summer research under the direction of a faculty member. (Established by Mr. and Mrs. W.K. Simpson)
- Yoquelet, Glen—Graduate Fellowship in Business. For MBA students who are New Mexico residents. Normally awarded in support of summer research under the direction of a faculty member. (Donated by Mrs. Eve Yoquelet)
- Yoquelet, Glen—Scholarship Fund. For graduate business students who have demonstrated a financial need. (Donated by Mrs. Eve Yoquelet)

LOAN/SALARY FUND

- Camuñez, Dino and Heidi Family—Endowed Fund. Employ a student(s) in the College of Business who meets the following criteria: Preference given to finance major, preference to Hispanic student, financial need may be a consideration but not requirement, work-study qualification may be a consideration but not requirement.
- Wemlinger, Eugene and Mable—Endowed Work Study Fellowship Fund. Support students in the College of Business or the Department of Geology. Recipients must be eligible for work-study funds and have at least a 2.5 GPA. Entering freshmen are eligible for the award. (Frankie Clemons, Executor, 9/00)
- Wichert, Peter—Memorial Mentorship Fund. Augment the pay of graduate assistant(s) or work study student(s) in the College of Business or to hire a GA or work-study student as determined by the associate dean, in consultation with the dean of the College of Business.