

Go to NMSU's list of Chartered Student Organizations

American Marketing Association (AMA)
AMA is the world's leading professional student organization that furthers the professional development of students through leadership training and involvement in the field of marketing.		Faculty Advisor Michelle Jasso jasso@nmsu.edu Office GU 316 575.646.4611
Local website	http://business.nmsu.edu/~ama/
National website	http://www.marketingpower.com/
Association of Information Technology Professionals (AITP)
It is the mission of AITP to provide superior leadership and education in Information Technology. AITP is dedicated to using the synergy of Information Technology partnerships to provide education & benefits to our members and to working with the industry to assist in the overall promotion and direction of Information Technology.		Faculty Advisor Richard Oliver roliver@nmsu.edu Office BC 233 575.646.2944
Local website	http://www.nmsu.edu/~aitp/
National website	http://www.aitp.org/index.jsp
Association of Latino Professionals in Finance and Accounting (ALPFA)
The purpose of ALPFA is to foster the continued interest in the accounting and finance profession by providing experiences designed to develop professional skills and leadership qualities of Latino students through opportunities to participate in case studies, interact & network with Latino professionals in the business community and socialize with faculty & members having similar goals.		Faculty Advisors Maria E. de Boyrie deboyrie@nmsu.edu Office GU 408 575.646.3252 Bill Smith smith@nmsu.edu Office GU 207 575.646.1422
Local website	http://business.nmsu.edu/~finance/StudentOrgs/ALPFA/
National website	http://www.alpfa.org/
Beta Alpha Psi—National Accounting Honors Society
Beta Alpha Psi is a national scholastic & professional accounting fraternity. The primary objective of the fraternity is to encourage and give recognition to scholastic and professional excellence in the field of accounting. This includes promoting the study and practice of accounting; providing opportunities for self-development and association among members and practicing accountants, and encouraging a sense of ethical, social, and public responsibility.		Faculty Advisor Rusty Calk rcalk@nmsu.edu Office BC 322 575.646.3290
Local website	http://www.nmsu.edu/~bap/
National website	http://www.bap.org/
Beta Gamma Sigma
Beta Gamma Sigma is a national honor society dedicated to excellence in business education. Membership is the highest national recognition a student can receive in an undergraduate business program accredited by AACSB International—The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.		Faculty Advisor Kathleen Brook kbrook@nmsu.edu Office BC 129 575.646.4905
Local website	—
National website	http://www.betagammasigma.org/
Business Council
The purpose of the Business Council is to serve as a liaison between the students and student organizations in the College of Business and ASNMSU as well as liaison between the students and the faculty. The members of the Council consist of two members from each Business College student organization, the officers of the Council, and the ASNMSU Senators from the College of Business.		Faculty Advisor Kathy Brook kbrook@nmsu.edu Office BC 129 575.646.4905
Local website	—
National website	—

Go to NMSU's list of Chartered Student Organizations

Delta Sigma Pi		Faculty Advisor Kathy Brook kbrook@nmsu.edu Office BC 129 575.646.4905
Delta Sigma Pi is a professional fraternity organized to foster the study of business in universities, to encourage scholarship, social activity and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice; to promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce; and to further a higher standard of commercial ethics, and culture and the civic and commercial welfare of the community. Membership provides opportunities to develop leadership skills, network with current students, alumni and members of the business community, serve the university and the community.
Local website	business.nmsu.edu/~dsp
National website	http://dspnet.org/
Finance Club		Faculty Advisor Dr. Greg Roth gregroth@nmsu.edu Office GU 412 575.646.4091
The Finance Club provides extracurricular opportunities for students to learn more about finance from practitioners who are working outside of the University in finance-related fields; leadership opportunities and networking opportunities for Club members, especially officers; and opportunities for students to serve the broader community & assist those in need.
Local website	http://business.nmsu.edu/~finance/StudentOrgs/FinanceClub/
Natl website	—
Hispanic Business Student Association (HBSA)		Faculty Advisor, Sylvia Acosta sylviaa@nmsu.edu Office BC 130 575.646.4917
Members are given the opportunity to enhance skills and to develop an appreciation for their multi-cultural heritage.
Local website	http://www.nmsu.edu/~hbsa/
National website	http://www.nhba.org/
Institute for Supply Management (ISM)		Faculty Advisor Dr. Minjoon Jun minjun@nmsu.edu Office GU 317 575.646.4987
ISM is the largest supply management association in the world. ISM's mission is to lead the supply management profession through its standards of excellence, research, promotional activities, and education. ISM provides opportunities for students to learn more about the profession, and professional skills and knowledge.
Local website	—
National website	www.ism.ws
Native American Business Student Association (NABSA)		Faculty Advisor Patrick Natoni pnatoni@nmsu.edu American Indian Program Garcia Annex, Room 132 575.646.3330
The Native American Business Student Association promotes the general welfare, develops leadership skills and furthers the interest of Native American Students majoring in business and governmental development of tribal communities. NABSA is also here for discussion and the exchange of ideas and to provide encouragement and moral support for the members as they pursue their career goals. Benefits of belonging: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop social, leadership skills. • Network with other Native American business students. • Be part of a national chapter of Native American Business professionals known as the American Indian Business Leaders (AIBL). • Fundraise for conference trips. • Compete in mock business plan competitions through AIBL. • Hear from tribal entrepreneurs and business owners through guest speaker series in the fall semester.
Local website	http://www.nmsu.edu/~aip
National website	http://www.aibl.org/

Go to NMSU's list of Chartered Student Organizations

Professional Golf Management Student Association (PGMSA)
Members of the Professional Golf Management Student Association are full-time students interested in golf who organize tournaments and perform community service.	Faculty Advisor Pat Gavin pgavin@nmsu.edu Office BC 206 575.646.7686
Local website http://pgm.nmsu.edu/ National website —
Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM)
An organization for students interested in the field of human resource management. All majors are welcome in the student chapter, not just students majoring in HRM. The student chapter of SHRM promotes the interest & development of the HR profession & future HR professionals.	Faculty Advisor Phil Benson pbenson@nmsu.edu Office BC 338 575.646.5695
Local website http://business.nmsu.edu/~shrm/ National website http://www.shrm.org/	