These objectives for will articulate to any Introduction to Information Systems course at any state university in New Mexico.

Blackboard and This Course

- Blackboard is a web-based tool for integrating an Internet component into a course. To access the course, log on to http://learn.nmsu.edu. There will be a link to the course if you have successfully registered for this class. It is very important that you get familiar with the Blackboard features the first week of the semester. Class announcements will be posted on the course homepage in Blackboard.

Exams

- There will be three exams. The exams will cover material from the textbook, lectures, and the assignments.

- The final exam will cover the material since the second exam and some central terms and concepts that have been discussed since the beginning of the semester.

- Each exam may be any combination of the following:
  - "Short Answer"
  - "True/False"
  - "Multiple Choice"
  - "Matching"

Quizzes

- There are weekly quizzes. Each will be worth 30 points. These quizzes will cover textbook material and will be given through Blackboard.

myITLab

- There are weekly myITLab assignments that require you to install the myITLab simulation software. The software can be obtained at http://www.myITLab.com

- You are responsible for all assigned myITLab assignments. It is your responsibility to verify that all myITLab assignments have been properly submitted. To do this, you can go to the My Submissions page after every MyITLab session you complete. Here you can verify that the server has the results from your submission. If the results are not there, you need to notify your instructor immediately. You will not receive credit for work that doesn't show up on the server."

Students with Disabilities
If you have a disability and would benefit from accommodations, you can notify the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) Office located at Garcia Annex (Phone/Voicemail 646-6840, TTY 646-1918).

If you are already registered with the SSD Office and need accommodations please provide your Accommodation Memo from the SSD within the first two weeks of class.

If you have a condition that may affect your ability to exit safely from the premises in an emergency or that may cause an emergency during class, you are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the Coordinator for SSD.

Call 646-3333 with any questions about the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and/or Section of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. All medical information will be held in strict confidence.

Scholastic Dishonesty

- Scholastic dishonesty will not be tolerated. The penalty for dishonest behavior can range from receiving a zero for an assignment/exam to censure from the University.

Incomplete Grades:

- Under university policy, incompletes may be given only if a student has a passing grade at mid-semester (the last day to withdraw from a class) and is precluded from successful completion of the second half of the course by a documented illness, documented death, family crisis or other similar circumstances beyond the student's control. An incomplete will not be given to avoid assigning a grade for marginal or failing work.

Withdrawals and drops:

- The deadline for withdrawing from a course in the fall is October 14, 2009. In the case of a withdrawal, the course remains on the student’s transcript and the grade is listed as “W”. Students in the College of Business may withdraw from a class by presenting an add/drop slip to the staff in the Advising Center who will process it, if it is received prior to the deadline.
- You can be administratively withdrawn from the class if you have excessive absenteeism and/or excessive missed assignments by October 14, 2009.
