</tr>
<tr>
<td>1:30 - 3:00 p.m.</td>
<td>The Evolving Distribution System: The time has come to break down the silos between competing structural enterprises, such as distributed generation, micro-grids, storage, and demand-side resources. How should they be configured to optimize consumer value, and what are the tradeoffs? Has the time come for a Distribution System Operator to facilitate market solutions and unleash innovation?&lt;br&gt;Moderator: Hon. Elizabeth S. Jacobs, Co-Vice Chair, NARUC Electricity Committee and Chair, Iowa Utilities Board&lt;br&gt;Speakers: Hon. Bob Stump, Commissioner, Arizona Corporation Commission</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3:30 - 5:00 p.m.</td>
<td>No longer Time To Play Dead; Compliance Time: EPA’s Clean Power Plan is upon us, and the final CAA § 111(d) rule will require unprecedented coordination within state governments to chart a course towards compliance. What are the best options for states? How do the building blocks interrelate? Are there winners and losers?&lt;br&gt;Moderator: Hon. Bill Kennedy, Commissioner, Missouri Public Service Commission&lt;br&gt;Speakers: Emily Stanford Fisher, Deputy General Counsel, Energy &amp; Climate, EEI&lt;br&gt;Duane Highley, President &amp; Chief Executive Officer, Arkansas Electric Cooperative Corporation&lt;br&gt;Tom Vinson, Vice President, Federal Regulatory Affairs, American Wind Energy Association&lt;br&gt;Dena E. Universal Service Contribution Reform: The technological change and competitive dynamics that have transformed the communications industry are jeopardizing the requirement that support for universal service be “predictable and sufficient.” Who should contribute and how? Should phone calls be treated the same as Skype or text messages? The panel will discuss these issues and more, including the recommended modifications made to the FCC by the USF Joint Board in early April.

Moderator and Speaker

Hon. Chris Nelson, Chair, NARUC Committee on Telecommunications and Chairman, South Dakota Public Utilities Commission

Speakers

Doug Garrett, Vice President, State Regulatory Affairs, Cox Communication
Pam Hollick, Associate General Counsel, State Public Policy, Level 3
Elin Katz, Consumer Counsel, Connecticut Office of Consumer Counsel
Joel Lubin, Vice President, Public Policy, AT&T Services, Inc.

Responders

Hon. Valerie Espinosa, Commissioner, New Mexico Public Regulation Commission
Hon. Paul Kjellander, Co-Vice Chair, NARUC Committee on Telecommunications and President, Idaho Public Utilities Commission

10:30 – 12:00 a.m.

The Next Convergence: Water, Energy and Telecommunications: The water industry relies heavily on energy, and the energy industry requires communications more than ever. Is there a growing nexus between all three industries? What is the synergistic interplay between these industries, and what does it promise for the future?

Moderator

Hon. Robert Powelson, NARUC Second Vice Chairman and Chairman, Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission

Speakers

Bryan Batson, President of Southern Operations, AGL Resources
Caroline Choi, Vice President, Energy & Environmental Policy, Southern California Edison Company
Connie Durcsak, President & Chief Executive Officer, Utilities Telecom Council
Hon. Donna Nelson, Chair, Public Utility Commission of Texas
Susan Story, President & Chief Executive Officer, American Water
Paul Vasington, Director, State Public Policy, Verizon

Responders

Hon. John “Butch” Howard, Commissioner, South Carolina Public Service Commission
Hon. Susan Bitter Smith, Chairman, Arizona Corporation Commission

1:30 - 2:00 p.m.

Special Address

Hon. David Martin, Cabinet Secretary, NM Energy, Minerals & Natural Resources Department

2:00 - 3:30 p.m.

EPA’s Clean Power Plan Regional Compliance and Reliability: EPA’s Clean Power Plan will require regional cooperation and coordination, and it may impact regional reliability. What are the best options for states? How will multi-state compliance work in the west, and will states be able to form non-contiguous multi-state plans?

Moderator

Hon. Carolene Mays-Medley, Chair, NARUC Committee on Critical Infrastructure and Vice Chair, Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission

Speakers

Kari Bennett, Senior Corporate Counsel, MISO
Hon. Alaina Burtenshaw, Chair, NARUC Water Committee and Chairman, Nevada PUC

Responders
- Hon. Julie Brown, Commissioner, Florida Public Service Commission
- Hon. ToNola D. Brown-Bland, Commissioner, North Carolina Utilities Commission
- Hon. Stephen M. Stoll, Commissioner, Missouri Public Service Commission

Regulatory Compact or Tug of War: Where did the compact originate, and how is it changing in response to the expectations of Wall Street and the complexity of financial markets. Is it still a fair deal to utilities and consumers? Or does it need rehabilitation?

Moderator and Speaker
- Hon. Brandon Presley, Chair, NARUC Consumer Affairs Committee and Commissioner, Mississippi Public Service Commission

Speakers
- Hon. Susan K. Ackerman, Chair, Oregon Public Utility Commission
- Hon. Lawrence Brenner, Commissioner, Maryland Public Service Commission
- Brent Gale, Principal & Sr. Energy Consultant, StrataG Consulting, Inc.
